A line graph with a white line on a black background. The line starts at a low point, rises to a peak, falls to a trough, rises to a second peak, falls to a second trough, and finally rises to a third, higher peak. The peaks are at approximately x-coordinates 10, 30, 50, and 70. The troughs are at approximately x-coordinates 20, 40, and 60. The line ends at the highest peak.
